MONDAY, JULY 15, 1895.

Connecticut will be the next State to vote on a prohibition amendment, the election taking place in October next. As the daily and weekly press of that State is overwhelmingly in opposition to it, it is evident that the task of weekly voting will soon grow utterly weary again to it. It must require a great flow of courage not to be unfavorable ultimately to the Prohibitionists to go into an election under such circumstances.

The daily press of yesterday and night before last told that the Democratic county committee had decided to put a full county ticket in the field, and that the Democratic papers will be thereby taken out of the campaign. This is not true. The Democratic papers will be in the campaign, and will be found fighting the battle of the Democratic party with all the vigor and ability at their command. The Democratic county committee has not the right to take the party out of the campaign, and it will not attempt to do so. The Democratic papers will be in the campaign, and will be found fighting the battle of the Democratic party with all the vigor and ability at their command. The Democratic county committee has not the right to take the party out of the campaign, and it will not attempt to do so.

The county canvass of Cook County, which has been in progress for the past week, has developed the fact that the Democratic party will be in the campaign, and will be found fighting the battle of the Democratic party with all the vigor and ability at their command. The Democratic county committee has not the right to take the party out of the campaign, and it will not attempt to do so. The Democratic papers will be in the campaign, and will be found fighting the battle of the Democratic party with all the vigor and ability at their command. The Democratic county committee has not the right to take the party out of the campaign, and it will not attempt to do so.

Subscriptions to the Democratic campaign fund are coming in slowly. The Democratic party is not in the habit of raising large campaign funds, and it is not likely that it will do so this year. The Democratic party is not in the habit of raising large campaign funds, and it is not likely that it will do so this year. The Democratic party is not in the habit of raising large campaign funds, and it is not likely that it will do so this year.

Chairman Harrison of the Democratic county committee has issued a call for a meeting of the committee to be held at the Democratic headquarters in the Grand Pacific Hotel on Tuesday evening, July 16, at 8 o'clock. The call is for the purpose of considering the question of the campaign and other matters of importance to the party. The call is for the purpose of considering the question of the campaign and other matters of importance to the party. The call is for the purpose of considering the question of the campaign and other matters of importance to the party.

Some of the city papers give no satisfactory cause for the sudden activity of a portion of the Democratic press in this city, having had but two or three days of the campaign, and have not given any reason

What the New Home Rule Bill Is Now Likely to Provide.

The Final Delay in the Progress of Parnell's Case Over Easter—The Next Monday Fatal—Gladstone Brought Into the Negotiations at Last Moment—The Opposition to Parnell Manifesto—Dramatic Scenes.

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

London, July 12.—The last account which I have given of the new Parnell Federation League was that it is not intended to organize into National Leagues, but will adopt the letter of the recent agreement only. The Parnell Federation consists at the head of the national movement, but the battle against the landlords will be fought in the name of the people. "Are you a Home Ruler?" says Mr. Parnell, "and do you want to take a hand [illegible] Parnell will ask candidates. Mr. Parnell has refused to act with all the anti-parnellites, and he will not act with Mr. Sexton, Mr. Dillon and Mr. Healy, who refused to act with the late leader of what is strictly right; nor yet is Mr. Healy, who himself did not contribute
